Tidings of great joy to our Sponsors

From Fr. August Ndepatanisho, Vocation Director

70 Priests prayed for the Sponsors of our Seminarians. Some of these Priests are beneficiaries of Sponsorship program directly or indirectly. The Novena was prayed from 21st December 2023 to 29th December 2023.

God Bless us all 🙏

BE PROUD OF THE CROSS

Through the Cross Jesus reconciled us with God; he destroyed the barrier that separated us from one another, and he overcame the obstacles that closed off the road to eternal happiness. The Cross is a great school of contemplation, prayer and forgiveness. By contemplating the Cross all forgiveness and reconciliation will be possible for us. Robert Cardinal Sarah is telling us that: " We have to learn to stand silently at the foot of the Cross while contemplating the crucified Lord as the Virgin Mary did."

IN DIFFICULTIES OF LIFE TO WHOM SHOULD I RUN?

The psalmist in various chapters of the Psalm invites us that we are supposed to approach God for the assistance in the difficulties of life and torments caused to us by our enemies:

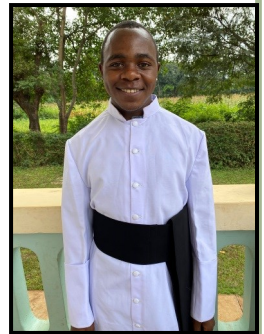

To you, O Lord, I call; my rock, be not deaf to me, lest, if you be silent to me, I become like those who go down to the Pit. (Ps 28:1)

You have seen, O Lord; be not silent! O Lord, be not far from me! Bestir yourself, and awake for my right, for my cause, my God and my Lord! (Ps 35:22-23)
O God, do not keep silence; do not hold your peace or be still, O God! For behold, your enemies are in tumult; those who hate you have raised their heads. (Ps 83:1-2)

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from helping me, from the words of my groaning? O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer; and by night, but find no rest. (Ps 22:1-2)

Rouse yourself! Why do you sleep, O Lord? Awake! Do not cast us off for ever! Why do you hide your face? Why do you forget our affliction and oppression? (Ps 44:23-24)

Thanks to those who sent Christmas cards and/or took their time to sign the cards for all the seminarians at our little Christmas card signing party.

It is with GREAT JOY that the seminarians received our greetings to bring some Christmas joy to them; they are very far away from their friends and family. From one of the Fraters in Italy...

From Frater Vitalis Kutilizo (1st Year Theology):

"Tumsifu Yesu Kristo Mama T.O!!

We are thankful to God for His gratuitous gifts; we are healthy, and prosperous in our studies here in Rome.

How about you (Mama T.O, Mama Linda and all the other good souls there) in America?

We are very thankful for the wonderful gifts we have received Mama T.O. We really can't express how joyful we are. Our hearts are overflowing with joy, happiness, hope and love. Thank you so much for this Love. We love you and praying for you all. May the Good Lord guide, protect and keep you safe.

In advance, we wish you Merry Christmas and Happy New Year Christmas.

Your greetings and gifts for the priests and seminarians mean a LOT to them!! It is amazing to them that people outside of Tanzania care about them.

Please, always keep them in your prayers and send your love and greetings to them to support them on their journey to the priesthood and their service to God as Holy Priests.

Right: This photo was taken at the arrival of our new Cardinal Protase Rugambwa to Tanzania after being installed by the Pope in Rome. So during the day of his coming, all Fraters studying at Segerea Seminary together with the people of Dar es Salaam gathered at Kurasini - The Tanzania Episcopal Conference headquarters - to wait for him...It was an historical event for us Seminarians as it was our first time to experience a new Cardinal. The retired one (Cardinal Pengo) was elected even before many of us were born.

My Journey Towards the Discernment of the Call to Priesthood

The journey of my Vocation started in my late childhood. I was interested in serving at the altar during Mass at our Outstation called Msongeni which is under Immaculate Heart of Mary - Kikelelwa Parish found in Tarakea. It was somehow very far from the parish, about 20kms, so we were getting only a single Mass during Sundays. With that experience, I grew desiring to serve God one day as a Catholic Priest in my life. My Catechist motivated and encouraged me always in my desire, since he was the closest spiritual leader to me at that time.

After finishing my Primary School education in September 2010, I traveled to Dar es Salaam, the most famous city in our country, to visit my relatives and to begin Pre-Form one studies (preparing myself for Ordinary level studies). Life at the city challenged my life of faith as well as vocation. Thus, I found myself no longer desiring to be Priest.

When I came back home on January of the following year 2011, ready to go to secondary school, my Catechist asked me about my Vocation, I answered directly without hesitation that I am no longer looking to be Priest in my life. He asked me why? I said, I do not feel the desire anymore. He advised me to go and reflect again to see whether that is the best choice I have made. I agreed with him. I was sent to Ungwasi Secondary School, run by the Catholic Diocese of Moshi, for Ordinary level studies.

While I was in Form Two, the second year in secondary school, the voice calling me to priestly vocation started again to resound within me. This time it was one of my friends who inspired me and succeeded to make alive again the call to priesthood. He was a new student transferred to our school from the Seminary run by the Congregation of the Apostles of Jesus called Uru, in which he failed to meet the academic requirements necessary for him to continue with his studies at the Seminary. He shared with me a lot of things about his life in the Seminary and what he knew about priesthood. Thus, I liked very much to listen to him when he was telling stories like these, although some of his stories were somehow far from the reality about priesthood in general. But they were necessary to make alive the call to serve God and his people within me.

My friend was also very much desiring to be a Priest, thus our friendship was centered in our common goal of life, in which we liked very much to be Religious Priests rather than Diocesan, but later I changed the plan.

In the end of our secondary studies, my friend who played a key role in my Vocation started to share with me that he is no longer feeling to be Priest and the desire was rapidly declining. I tried to advise him to be patient and fearless with the situation facing him and things will be better. He continued to share with me his experiences and lastly, after seeing the situation is no longer tolerable, he decided to quit the way to priesthood and focused on the marriage life. Thus I had no other choice rather than agreeing with him, telling him that I will be praying for him so that he may discern the true call of God in his life.

I thank God that the situation which faced my friend did not affect my Vocation. However, I think that God used my friend as an instrument to direct me to what He would like me to be in my life. And after my friend had finished that role he returned to what God has planned in his life different from his original intention.

After my Ordinary level studies, I went to government owned Moshi Secondary School for Advanced level studies. The school was not very far from the Cathedral of our Diocese. The Catholic Students in the school were under the pastoral care of Fr. Leodgard Zawadi at that time working at the Christ the King Cathedral. He was very close to us and especially to those who were showing the desire to be Priests. He explained to us about Diocesan Priesthood as well as Religious Priesthood and their distinctions. Thus here I was motivated to be a Diocesan priest while still retaining the desire for Religious Life.

After my Advanced studies I made a final decision to be a Diocesan priest desiring to serve God in my home Diocese. Later on, I perceived it as the will of God for in the processes of joining formation, that of the Catholic Diocese of Moshi went well without much difficulties contrary to my expectations. Now I am happy to be part of the family of Catholic Diocese of Moshi and I believe God is guiding and sustaining me in my journey towards Priesthood.

TERMITE WORK LIKE TEAM WORK OF NINJAS

Termites are so impressive to me! I learn from them several ways towards our success, especially in the Priestly journey.

You know termites are like ninjas: they're stealthy, they're silent, and they can cause a lot of damage before you even know they're there. In my presentation don't look on the negative side! Your silence as that of termite and your commitment to God through prayers get rid off the devil's plan for you! As now you're in the beginning, Satan should wonder to see you at the top of your success! But don't worry, if you're the termite (Jesus fighting ninjas), you can! Let's work together as Team work! Let's Pray together as Ninjas in the war ground!

Tanzanian
termite mound

Although termites are very small, they build without the assistance of architects or engineers; their mounds are ingeniously constructed, using cues known only to the bugs. They are not so much cooperative and calculating agents. We can learn from these non - rational beings how cooperation can bring us to the top of the Lord's Ministry. Although we are very small in whatever we think, cooperation is the key of every door towards our success.

What I learn from them in such a kind of cooperation is, Actions more than words! To work more than Speaking! In prayer, in manual works, in studies, and in all other spheres of life.

MY EXPERIENCE IN THE MAJOR SEMINARY

My name is Erick Machary, a first year Seminarian of Catholic Diocese of Moshi at Kibosho Senior Seminary.

It was 29th September 2023, when I arrived at Kibosho senior Seminary to start a journey of philosophy studies and priesthood formation. We were warmly welcomed by the rector of the Seminary Fr. Joseph Mahela together with the senior student of the Seminary.

Kibosho Seminary is one of the major seminaries in Tanzania under the governance of TEC (Tanzania Episcopal Conference - the bishops) providing philosophical and related Religious studies. It has nine resident formators, two temporary formators and two part time teachers. The number of seminarians ranges to 251 from the vast of all dioceses in Tanzania and a few from Religious Congregations. The Seminary life is rooted in four main pillars which are prayers, studies, work and sports.

Starting with prayers, we have Holy Mass every day here in the Seminary; moreover, we pray liturgy of hours in four sessions a day (i.e. Lauds, midday prayers, vespers and night prayers). Also, we have other devotions such as benediction, rosary and meditation. All these opportunities I use them to pray for myself, my family, for our diocese sponsors, friends, for all who implore my prayers for their needs and for the whole Church.

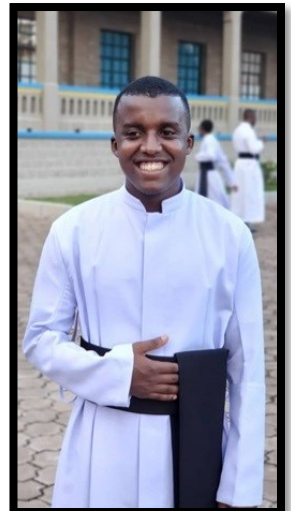

On the side of studies, we have 11 courses in first year, a combination of philosophy studies and Religious studies. For sure the subjects are interesting, for they reveal to us the truth about who we are and how we are supposed to be before our creator the Heavenly Father.

For the parts of works and sports, we have different faculties of manual works including farming, gardening, attending cows, pigs and hens, maintenance of water supply system and cleanliness. For me, I have been assigned in the maintenance of water supply system because I have skills in plumbing.

On the side of sports and games we play football, volleyball, basketball and jogging. Myself, I'm interested with football, volleyball and jogging. All these physical activities strengthen our health of both mind and body.

Generally, the Seminary life is livable, and so I implore your prayers so that one day I could serve God and His flocks in accordance with His will.

Journey of Faith A Reflection on a Special Retreat, Blessings, and Joyful Celebrations

Kibosho Senior Seminary Cassock Day

Our incredible journey kicked off with a five-day retreat led by the inspiring Rev. Fr. Dr. Peter Siamoo. He shared valuable spiritual insights, emphasizing the cassock as a symbol of priesthood, a stage we hadn't reached yet. Padre Siamoo advised against dressing our street youth in cassocks, highlighting the purity tied to white cassocks, a reminder of our baptism.

The retreat wrapped up with a heartfelt penance sacrament and a special Holy Mass on December 8, 2023. The buzz grew for the awaited day, December 10, 2023. When the Bishop arrived at our Seminary, the Mass began with a solemn march to the chapel. The Bishop's homily focused on "preparing the way of the Lord," stressing living in sync with God's word, embracing our vocation, and honoring sanctity through our white cassocks.

After the homily, the Bishop blessed 96 cassocks for each first year seminarians, handing them out individually.

The Mass continued seamlessly, leading to a cheerful photo session with the Bishop, priests and other seminarians followed by a shared lunch filled with joy and togetherness.

As the sun set on that remarkable day, I am profoundly grateful to God for the blessings bestowed upon us. Heartfelt thanks to the Bishop whose presence graced us, the priests who guided us, and all my fellow seminarians who made this day truly special. The perfect weather, the sublime liturgy, and the overall beauty of the day added an extra layer of grace to our joy. May we carry the spirit of this beautiful day in our hearts as we continue our journey. Thank you, one and all, for making it a day to remember.

As we embrace the festive season, I extend heartfelt Christmas and New Year wishes to our generous sponsors whose support makes our journey possible. May the spirit of Christmas fill your hearts with joy and gratitude.

To my fellow seminarians and dedicated priests, may this holiday season be a time of reflection, unity, and renewed hope. Wishing each one of you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year filled with blessings, love, and meaningful moments. May the coming year 2024 bring us all closer to our aspirations and God's abundant grace."

Though it is so cold, Kibosho Senior Seminary is the Silent place with attractive environments for meditation. I'm happy to be here at Kibosho. The climate of the place for the time being is very Cold. Everyone here is wearing Heavy Jackets in order to keep himself safe.

As a result of this weather, the Seminary provides tea two times every day (during the morning and during the evening) and this makes Seminarians feel comfortable.

An excerpt from: THE SOLEMNITY OF CHRISTMAS

The solemnity of Christmas is a deeply cherished event in the Catholic faith, reminding the faithful of the profound love of God expressed through the incarnation of Jesus Christ. It signifies the fulfillment of Old Testament prophecies and brings hope, peace and joy to believers. The rich biblical narratives, combined with Catholic traditions and customs, create a profound sense of awe and reverence during this holy season. The celebration of Christmas serves as a reminder of God's immense love for humanity and the redemption offered through Jesus' birth. Over the centuries, the Christmas traditions and observances have evolved, blending the sacred and cultural elements, uniting Catholics worldwide in the joyous celebration of the birth of their Savior.
